CONSIGNMENT CONTRACT

1. Items must be clean, pressed, and on hangers. We will try to inspect your items as you wait. If we are unable to inspect immediately, we will notify you if we have any unaccepted items. Any items not picked up within seven days of our notification will be donated or disposed of.
2. Consigned items will be kept on display in your name for 90 days. This period will begin when the item is initially offered for sale. We reserve the right to pull items off the floor earlier due to changing seasons, etc.
3. You will receive 40% of the actual sale price. All prices and markdowns will be determined by management.
4. Checks can usually be picked up after the 6th of each month. Checks that haven't been picked up within 4 months of the date on the check will become void and will not be reissued. Out-of-town consignors will have their checks, less postage, mailed to them on a quarterly basis (February, May, August, and November). Let us know if you would prefer to pick up your check monthly at the shop. Checks returned to us as undeliverable will be held for 30 days only and will not be reissued.
5. You can reclaim any unsold items at the end of the consignment period. However, if you reclaim any items before the end of the consignment period, you will incur a $1 per item charge. Please call first so that we can have your items pulled and ready for you.
6. After 90 days, any unsold items become the property of the shop. They will be sold, donated, or otherwise disposed of without further responsibility to you, the consignor.
